

APPENDIX 5

QUALIFICATIONS OF THE INVESTIGATOR

Edward Heite served as Historic Registrar and Chief of the Bureau of Archives and Records Management for the State of Delaware. His assignments with the state included the statewide survey of historic sites and the restoration of the Old State House at Dover. He was previously archaeological historian for the Virginia Historic Landmarks Commission, for whom he directed the excavation of eighteenth-century Fredericksville Furnace and the seventeenth-century Hallowses site in Virginia.

Since 1980, Mr. Heite has completed reconnaissance-level studies and phase I studies for the Philadelphia District, United States Army Corps of Engineers, National Park Service, United States Navy, Waste Management of North America, BCM Eastern, Inc., the Trustees of the New Castle Common, and the Delaware Department of Transportation.

Mr. Heite is a member of the Society of Professional Archaeologists, certified in theoretical/archival research, historical archaeology, documentary research, field research and cultural resource management. He meets the professional standards for both historians and archaeologists set forth in 36 CFR Part 61 and 43 CFR Part 7 (1984) and in the Secretary of the Interior's standards and guidelines for archaeology and historic preservation (Federal Register Thursday, September 29, 1983, pages 44738-44740).
